

A great many people want long, heavy hair, but how to get it, that is what puzzles them. The fact is, the hair needs a little help now and then. The roots require feeding.

When the hair is starved, it stops growing, loses its lustre, falls out, turns gray. Ayer's Hair Vigor is a hair-help. It makes the hair grow, stops it from falling, and completely cures dandruff.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

If your hair is fading or turning gray, begin at once with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It will positively restore color to your gray hair, all the full, rich color it had in early life.

As a hair-dressing you will certainly like it, for it keeps the hair soft and glossy and prevents it from splitting at the ends.

Do not be deceived by cheap imitations which will only disappoint you. Make sure that you get the genuine Ayer's Hair Vigor.

IROQUOIS MAY BE DELAYED

Although Commander Pond, Ensign Stitt and Midshipman Arwine will arrive in the Sonoma due from San Francisco today, the U. S. Tug Iroquois may not sail for Midway Island until June 1, instead of May 23 as originally planned. The coming of the battleship Wisconsin due to arrive here on May 27 from Bremerton will bring officers who have been ordered upon a general court-martial to try a prisoner now held at the Naval Station. Captain Rodman's orders were to have the man tried before this court, and this being the case he construes this order to mean that he remain at the Station until the conclusion of the trial. Captain Rodman is also to place his recruits on the Wisconsin. The Iroquois is to assist in buoying the cable when it is landed at Midway Island.

Caught Old Prisoner.

One of the blue jackets of the Yorktown apprehended on Tuesday evening by the police was a long-term prisoner on his way to the mainland. The man had been confined in an alley way, there being no brig on the gunboat, and he simply slipped his handcuffs and went ashore.

A New Desert Terror.

The great Mojave desert, in California, holds many strange and weird mysteries, but none more gruesome than that which is now causing apprehension among those who have occasion to travel over its sands.

There is a mysterious murderer in the desert. He is known as "The Strangler," for his victims all bear the marks of a rope or cord about the neck. Who or what he is no man can say, for none have seen him and lived to tell the tale. Within forty days eleven of his victims have been found.

Jack Doyle, the latest, was known to have considerable money. This was missing, as was also his watch, when his body was found. A man named Harmon started across the desert three weeks ago to examine some mineral claims. He had several hundred dollars with him to buy the claims if they proved to be satisfactory. He was found with the marks of the cord about his neck, and his money was missing. One or two others of the victims were known to carry sums of money when they rode out into the desert, but upon their bodies when found nothing of value was discovered. Robbery is the plain object of the strangler. The method is much like that of the now extinct Thug Castle in India.

In all instances but one, the victims have gone out alone. A little more than five weeks ago John Carmen and Andrew Froham rode away from San Bernardino together. They were starting on a prospecting tour and were therefore not expected back at any definite time. Three men returning from the mines last week found their bodies side by side twenty-five miles from Dagbog. The peculiar atmosphere—dry and hot—preserves the bodies of men who meet death in the desert. These two bodies were dried up like mummies.—Detroit Tribune.
